Embracing the Cross

The following is an excerpt from the Leader's Manual from the Opening the Word program on Formed.org from the Augustine Institute: 5th Sunday of Easter, Year C.

"The theme from today's readings focuses on enduring hardships and trials—embracing the crosses that God allows into our lives. In our human nature, we find ourselves resistant to this kind of suffering. We avoid it and anxiously try to change situations that are unpleasant.

But God is inviting us to trust him in our day-to-day lives, even when our circumstances are unpleasant or involve difficulty. God is inviting us to share in his passion. This theme comes through clearly in the Gospel reading when Jesus says, "Now is the Son of Man glorified," just as Judas is leaving to betray him. It is precisely through the suffering Christ will face in his betrayal, passion, and death that he is glorified. This is at the heart of our Catholic faith. One of the great mysteries of our faith is that we are all called to share in Christ's glory, by sharing in his suffering.

Just as Jesus offers up the poverty of his battered condition on the cross, and God uses it to transform the world, so too we are called to offer up the sufferings and poverty of our lives. When we are willing to embrace the poverties of our day-to-day lives and offer those up in trustful surrender and in union with Christ's sacrifice to the Father, God will transform them into amazing riches"

DIOCESAN NEWS

The Diocese of Jefferson City warns the public of what appears to be an ongoing phishing scam involving emails and texts purportedly from priests or parish/Chancery staff. This scam has hit many parishes across the United States.

The email or text purports to be from a person the target knows, such as one's pastor, a parish staff member, the bishop or someone else from the Church. If the target responds to the fake email or text, the sender will follow up with a request for some sort of monetary assistance, often for gift cards or iTunes cards.

It is truly unfortunate cyber criminals will attempt to exploit the generous nature of our community. Sending emails or texts asking for cash or gifts cards is not how priests, parishes or the Diocese of Jefferson City seeks financial assistance for our work. If you receive an email or text from a trusted church personnel asking for assistance, confirm by calling that person and do NOT respond to the email or text.

The FBI website address to file an online Internet crime complaint is <https://www.ic3.gov>.

WORSHIP & SPIRITUALITY

Chair: Carolyn Loraine

Renewal Celebration:

Ministry of Prayer, Praise and Intercessions will be having a morning of renewal on May 30 to celebrate the second anniversary of the founding of this group. There will be morning mass at 8 am, followed by a fellowship breakfast. Msgr. Makarewicz will also give a presentation on centering prayer.

The parish office receives many requests for prayer and intercessions each week. We include them in the bulletin and at the Universal Prayers at Mass on Sunday if requested. Members of the group will be instructed in prayer, given a prayer book and other aids to prayer, and publically commissioned as ministers. The duties of the members will be to spend a designated time in prayer each day devoted to the intentions that have been requested. If you would like to join this ministry, contact the parish office by phone or email.

Cover to Cover Book Club

The book this month is:
The Butterfly and the Violin
by Kristy Cambron
It will be discussed at the meeting
on Wednesday, May 29th at 6:00 pm in Bestgen Hall.

All the books that were put in the bag have been read. If you haven't gotten the chance to come to book club, May would be a great time to join. If you do come, please bring with you the title and author of a book you'd like the club to read. When your book is chosen, you will lead the discussion and take a light snack to share. Everyone is responsible for their own drinks.

The Club is looking for someone to facilitate the group. Responsibilities are easy:

- 1) Email the monthly book title to the group and office staff.
- 2) Keep the bag of book titles
from which to choose
- 3) Pick up key to Bestgen the day of the meeting and return it the next day.

Contact Mel Graessle if interested.
