Director of Religious Education and Parish Faith Formation: Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Church, Lake Ozark, is seeking a full time director of religious education and faith formation. We are looking for a practicing and active Catholic to coordinate classroom catechesis for school age students; recruiting and training catechists; leading the parish's implementation of Virtus: Protecting God's Children; and coordinating sacramental preparation and parish-wide faith formation. The candidate would have experience in youth and adult education, excellent communication skills, the ability to work with parishioners of any age, and a background in parish faith formation. If you are interested, send a resume to Msgr. Marion J. Makarewicz, marmak3261@att.net. Don't forget to include a solid letter of introduction that details the particular talents and vision you would bring to parish faith formation.

Concrete Steps Repair: The steps on the northwest side of the north entrance to church are deteriorating rapidly. This past winter caused several of the steps to fracture and the edges of the steps are no longer reliable. We have sectioned off those stairs since they are not safe. Sorry for the inconvenience. We had not anticipated this much damage from the winter freeze and thaw. We have identified contractors to remove the existing set of stairs and pour a new one that is wider. As soon as the weather holds and their schedule clears, we will get the work done.

We Are Told to Give All Our Cares to Jesus By Gunther F. Skaletz

"So faith comes from hearing, that is, hearing the Good News about Christ" (Romans 10:17).

Who among us hasn't struggled with the difficulties of being with God and the Anointed One (Jesus) with all our hearts, all our minds, and all our actions? We know what is expected of us and yet Jesus' stillness occasionally escapes us. Yet, his words to us are clear: "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me" (John 14:6). Jesus makes a point of inviting us to be with him, to pray with him, and to love him. In order to be with him, we are to, "Give all your cares and worries to God" (1 Peter 5:7); all of them. We are reassured that as long as we come to Jesus we will never be without him, or his love (John 6:37). In faith's spirit of that scripture, what better more genuine way to live Jesus' words than to spend our prayer and devotion time drinking from the spring of his never ending compassion and feasting on his joy (John 6:35-38). All of us may come to understand through prayer, worship and study, that knowing Jesus is knowing truth (John 8:31-32). The night comes and the day begins and we arise anew in his grace. Share your hopes, dreams, joys and sorrows the next time you spend time with Jesus. The dazzling light radiating from his word will fill your heart with his grace, love, and mercy. Yes, every new day can be a challenge in our lives, yet we can overcome the challenges because with God, all things are possible.

The Rose

Good bye (Adieu) my heavenly rose. May you ever grow in our hearts,
You were the grace that placed itself where lives were torn apart.
You called out to our sorrows and you whispered to those in pain.
Now, you belong to heaven, and stars call out your name.
Adieu my rose (Elaine). Gunther F. Skaletz

Faith Step: Have you noticed the effects of poor choices spilling into your life or the lives of others; is so, in what ways? Receive the forgiveness of Jesus and ask him for strength to stop sinning. May the peace of God be with you.

Gunther F. Skaletz is also the author of his autobiography, Life on Both Sides of the Wall, and is the author of innumerable manuals for the Hospitality Industry as well.
